

7.0 Verification

7.1 General

All infection control measures described in this section are required to be capable of verification by inspection. There must be no barriers in place to prevent the checking and validating the measures described.